Discretionary Fund Collection for Hurricane Florence Relief

On the first Sunday of every month, the cash raised in the loose collection goes into the Rector's Discretionary Fund. Next Sunday, October 7 the collection will go toward the work of Episcopal Relief and Development to bring assistance to those impacted by Hurricane Florence in the Southeast U.S. Episcopal Relief and Development is one of the most effective relief agencies in our country and has staying power. They are often there when other agencies have long gone. They just left New Orleans at the end of 2017 after Katrina struck in 2004. A donation to ERD is a gift that is well used. Please be generous next Sunday in our loose collection.
