Women's Club - We're going to make more decorated wine bottles for the St. Nicholas Fair and will meet at 6:30 in Phelps Hall on the following dates:

Monday, October 28

Monday, November 4

Monday, November 18

Please bring any clean bottles (labels removed) that you have, a glue gun, glue sticks, decorative stuff, etc. We're all going to keep an eye out for items that we could use to decorate the bottles including colorful twine, bright ribbons, artificial greenery, and anything sparkly. We'll make more bottles like the ones we made for the Harvest Festival, too. We think we have enough glass marbles for the first work session. Come join us! It's fun!

Boar's Head Festival - Some of you may be familiar with the Boar's Head and Yule Log Festival at the Asylum Hill Congregational Church in Hartford. It's a medieval celebration of Epiphany through music, dancing, pageantry and live animals. It's been performed annually for over 50 years and is truly spectacular. This season it will be performed on January 11, January 12, and January 13. Joan Churney is organizing a group to attend a performance on Sunday, January 12 in the afternoon. Ticket sell out very fast. If you are interested in joining the group, contact Joan at 860-202-2440 or email her at churneyfarm@comcast.net. She wants to call in the order for tickets on Monday, November 4th. Tickets are $25 - she needs the money up front. Husbands, wives, and family are all welcome! A group of us went a few years ago and thought it was fantastic!

Support the WAIM Energy Assistance Fund to help our neighbors stay warm and keep their lights on this winter. Think how you and your family would fare if you had no heat or electricity during the winter, and then drop a donation in the "Walk for Warmth" jar at the back of the church. If you can, join our WAIM representative Amy Stone on the walk on November 24th and create a St. Peter's group to show solidarity. If you can't go on the walk, please donate!
