

JoAnn Osmond, right, outreach coordinator at St Peter's Episcopal Church, Hebron, presented a check to Tressa Giordano, left, Executive Director of Andover, Hebron, Marlborough children and youth services, located in Hebron. AHM's programs benefit children ages three and up, including arts and crafts, counseling, preschool programs and camps that are held during school vacations, for the children of those towns. St Peter's donates to a local charity following any of their community events.
