

As part of the 2025 Juneteenth celebration, a plaque was dedicated in the Memorial Garden to the memory of enslaved members of our community. A QR code embedded in the plaque takes you to a website containing extensive information about the descendants of those slaves. The information was compiled by John Baron, a parishioner and Hebron town historian. Click here to see the document:

Stories of Formerly Enslaved Hebron Residents from the code-diversity.org website:
History of Hebron Tours – CoDE

Connecticut Public Television covered the event. Formerly enslaved Hebron residents remembered in Juneteenth tribute | Connecticut Public