

Sanctuary Performing Arts

30 Church St, PO Box 513, Hebron, CT 06248

Proudly Presents for PRIDE Month

A Lesbian Belle Tells

Friday, June 12, 2026 6:30pm

St. Peter's Church

30 Church St, Hebron

June 13, 2026 1-3pm AHM Youth and Family Services

In this time of great uncertainty, one way to combat anxiety is through humorous storytelling. Elizabeth McCain developed a humorous one-woman play based on her real-life events. The material of McCain's play resembles talented writers' styles such as Dorothy Allison's honesty, Julia Reed's Southern sass and irreverence, and David Sedaris's satirical wit.

A Lesbian Belle Tells affirms and validates the LGBTQ+ community and beyond, with universal themes of self-discovery, acceptance, family struggles, forgiveness, loss, and love. McCain spins stories with a beating heart and dispenses a powerful dose of medicine for the soul to heal just about anything. The performance will be part of PRIDE celebration sponsored by Small Town Pride. You can purchase tickets for the performance $20 for adults and $5 for youth by clicking this link:

<https://www.zeffy.com/en-US/ticketing/pride-performance-a-lesbian-belle-tells> or the

QR Code below.

In addition, Ms. McCain will lead a story-telling workshop as part of the Small-Town Pride celebration on Saturday, June 13 from 10-3pm at AHM Youth and Family Services, 25 Pendleton Drive, Hebron. Her workshop will take place from 1-3 as part of the celebration.

